

Adrian Tatham

Alacrity's Founder and CEO, Adrian Tatham, has been specialising in interactive communications for the past ten years and has decades of experience in the public and private sectors, both in Australia and internationally.

In 1999, Adrian's dedication to addressing the need for real-time interactive business communication led him to create Alacrity technologies to develop the core technologies that today underpin the innovative CLEW communications platform

Adrian began his career in the Australian Customs Service, where he worked for more than 20 years in areas including investigations, law enforcement and implementing new technology strategies such as advanced passenger processing
